THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD 11th January 2026 Year A

With the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the Christmas season comes to its close and the public mission of Jesus begins. The child revealed to the shepherds and the nations now steps into the waters of the Jordan, identifying himself fully with the people he has come to save. This moment marks a quiet but decisive turning point: from hidden life to public witness.

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus approaches John to be baptised, despite John's hesitation. Jesus insists, not out of need for repentance, but out of faithfulness to God's plan. As he emerges from the water, the heavens open, the Spirit descends like a dove, and the Father's voice proclaims him as the beloved Son. This is a revelation of who Jesus is, and a declaration of the mission he is about to undertake.

Isaiah's vision helps us understand the meaning of this moment. God's chosen servant is not one who breaks the bruised reed or quenches the wavering flame. He brings justice quietly, faithfully, and with compassion. At the Jordan, Jesus is revealed as this servant: gentle, obedient, and wholly given to God's purposes.

In the reading from Acts, Peter proclaims that God shows no partiality and that Jesus' ministry was marked by the power of the Spirit, doing good and bringing healing. The baptism of Jesus is the beginning of this Spirit-filled mission, a mission that reaches outward to all people.

This feast invites us to remember our own baptism. Like Jesus, we are named and claimed by God, anointed by the Spirit, and sent into the world. Baptism calls us to live as God's servants today: to act with humility, to bring justice with compassion, and to reflect the love of the one who calls each of us beloved.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen.

(Pope Francis)

POPE'S MONTHLY INTENTION FOR JANUARY

For prayer with the Word of God

Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.
